CONNECT GROUPS

COLLEGE

College

Our College Connect Group is a great group of college aged young adults that engage the Word of God through discussion oriented biblical teaching. Taught by our College Minister, the College Connect Group focuses on helping students understand their culture and how a follower of Christ can engage that culture to the glory of God. We regularly participate in activities and service projects together and go on mission trips.

Teachers: Alex and Lindsay Wolfe, Ron and Peggy Gover
Location: Green Room

YOUNG ADULT SINGLES (20s-30s)

Young Adults

A medium/large sized group of young single adults ages 20–39 years old that is centered around the study of Scripture and how it applies to culture, mission, and our daily lives. The group spends the first half of class in an interactive lecture format, followed by small group discussion. There are small groups that meet during the week based out of this Connect Group. The Group also participates in a number of events and activities each month and serves on and off campus regularly. An annual mission trip is also taken, typically to Guatemala.

Teacher: Travis Cook
Location: Choral Hall
Age: 20–39

YOUNG ADULTS (20s-30s)

Pearce/Springer Connect Group

For young married couples in their 20s–30s. It features small group, interactive, biblical teaching with the class sharing about being a young couple in today's society. This Connect Group is led by Ed and Cheryl Pearce and Terry and Debbie Springer. They bring a wealth of knowledge and practical experience to our young couples. The class is open, inviting, loving, caring, and fun for all!

Teacher: Ed Pearce
Part of the Young Married Department 2
Location: Great Hall E
Age: 20s–30s

Connection Class

A small group of mid-to-late 30's married couples. We actively engage in Bible study and how it applies to our daily lives. Our teacher, Steve Corder and his wife, Danette, are long time members of Park Cities. We look forward to having guests and new members.

Teacher: Steve Corder
Part of the Young Married Department 2
Location: Great Hall C
Age: 30s

NewlyWed

Specifically designed for couples married a year or less. Class topics are relevant to many issues faced by newlyweds in their 20's and 30's, and couples are encouraged to join any time during their first year of marriage to complete the 12-month series. There are numerous opportunities to build relationships and initiate friendships through various socials, a weekend retreat, Sunday lunches and mission projects. Mentor couples also provide leadership, guidance and friendship to class members.

Wayne and Donna Mason have led the class since 1999 and Wayne has developed a biblically based curriculum from his extensive research and personal experience. His “tell it like it is” teaching style fosters discussion and practical application of the issues presented.

Teacher: Wayne Mason
Part of the Young Married Department 1
Location: Lower Level Collins 1
Age: 20s–30s

Kibby Class

For young married couples in their 20's. We meet each Sunday to pray for each other and to discuss God's Word. This is an interactive class where you will be encouraged to participate and give input. The goals for the class are to help you apply the Bible to your daily life, to help you build strong relationships with other Christian couples, to guide you to find your spiritual gifts and use them to support others, and to encourage you to live your life God's way. Why do you believe what you believe? This class will challenge you to think through the tough questions and grow in the process.

The leaders of the class, Rob and Leslie Kibby, have a passion for sharing God's

The Foundations group is led and facilitated by three couples with young families, all of whom grew together as young couples in the church: Carroll and Casey Gurganus, Becky and Isaac Haas, and Emily and John-Michael Kretz. We welcome other young couples who want to deepen their knowledge, understanding, and application of God's Word.

Breakthrough

For couples and young families navigating careers, marriage and parenthood. We gather to study the Word of God and obey it by praying for and ministering to one another, doing life together and caring for those in need through outreach. Having three teachers, our lessons encompass a range of styles, all of which include class interaction. We periodically provide parenting-specific topics based on the desires of class members.

Our leadership team, Anna and Damon Berry, Lindsay and David Nordyke, and Lauren and Chris Paulsen, are excited to build relationships with and support the families in our class. We all have young children as well and desire to see our class members follow God faithfully and strengthen their marriages as they share the new demands of parenthood. Please join us and meet the members of our class.

For women of all ages. Whether single, married, widowed, or divorced, we gather and support one another on the Christian journey. We provide fellowship, prayer and teaching on various topics and books of the Bible. Our teaching lends its way to discussion and testimony of personal application.

Dr. Debi Newman-Riesling loves teaching the women of Naomi and Ruth and strives to address their unique concerns and understanding of the Bible. Women learn, grow and change best in the context of relationship. Debi says, "I hope every woman who comes to Naomi and Ruth feels that she is among friends. You will always feel welcome whether you drop by once in a while or become a regular member of our Connect Group."
